Transforming the future for Deaf and hard of hearing students

You could
WIN a $3,000 scholarship

Exact value and number of individual awards dependent on number of qualified applicants.

About the program:

Open to Canadian residents, 17 years of age or older.

Students must be pursuing full-time, part-time or distance learning for academic or training programs at accredited educational institutions, inside or outside of Canada.

A committee of Deaf and hard of hearing community members, educators, industry leaders and staff will review and select applicants. Successful applicants will be recognized in September 2019.
